From our Editor

GREETINGS FELLOW MEMBERS!

How about this cool weather!!! So thankful for some relief after the oppressive heat and high humidity. It's a little difficult trying to keep a bunch of young rambunctious Irish Setters cool for any length of time. It is amazing how well they tolerate heat!

Thankful too, that Gail's open heart surgery went so well. Boy, talk about a life changing experience for him and for his family. This was not a planned operation, but he did know for about 5 years that he had a murmur due to a faulty aortic valve. Just did not know when the symptomology would turn critical. Luckily we were not out of the country, another thing to be grateful for. And we are also so thankful for the surgeon performing a miraculous surgery that years ago would never have happened. Also thankful to Sparrow Hospital in Lansing for the excellent care.

Interestingly, it was revealed, that because Gail had Scarlet Fever as a small child, most likely the Streptococcus bacteria is what caused the initial damage to the valve over time. Back in Gail's childhood (he was a farm kid), antibiotics were not plentiful and some children actually died during that period. There is a big difference in the medical care today with the routine use of antibiotics, compared to the days when parents actually exposed their children to disease so they would build up an immunity.

Many thanks to the club for the nice get well card and a special thank you to all of you who sent individual cards to cheer him on.

How about an update on some of our members? It would be great to hear from you, how you are spending the summer, vacations, hobbies, red dogs, etc.

A friendly reminder for you to check the ISCM website for news on upcoming events, rescue, the latest photos, dues notice.

Thank you,

Barbara Riegle, Editor

In Memoriam

CH Rockherin Curtain Call, Bryn

9/13/00 - 5/31/13

The house is "oh so quiet" even though I still have Caitlin and Kelly here. Bryn brought a calm to our household. She was sensible, sweet and loving. You taught me how to love and let go. Kelly, your daughter, has big shoes to fill. I'll miss your huge smile and sloppy kisses.

Run Free Bryn. SharonM, your co-owner, is at the bridge waiting for you. Now it's her turn to love you.

May the Shamrocks Fall Softly,

Love always,

Barbara & John Popyk

BISS CH Shangrila Dirty Lil' Secret, Cooper

With broken hearts we had to say good-bye to our sweet baby boy, Cooper, BISS CH Shangrila Dirty Lil' Secret. He was the whole package, turning many heads during his 12 years of precious life. We were always so proud of him and so grateful for every minute with him. Cooper made our life exciting and fun. Thank you to all our friends for their heartfelt condolences. Your support and kindness really means a lot to us.

May the Shamrocks fall softly
